JUKEBOX JAMBOREE TO CELEBRATE LOCAL TOYS FOR TOTS DRIVE

CHARLESTON – In order to celebrate the efforts of the community and the Eastern Illinois University campus during this year's Toys for Tot campaign, a Jukebox Jamboree will take place from 8 to 10 p.m. Friday.

The public is invited to join students, faculty and staff in Seventh Street Underground, located in the bottom level of the Martin Luther King Jr. University Union (east side). The event is open to persons of all ages.

In addition to refreshments, attendees will be able to enjoy live entertainment, including performances by Todd Rauch, Sylvia Donald, Alex Tolbert, Rhythm & X-tacy, Lunchbox Voodoo, the EIU Jazz Combo and the Unity Gospel Choir. Additional activities will include photos with Santa Claus.

There is no admission fee; however, persons are encouraged to bring a new, unwrapped toy for the cause.

This event is being co-sponsored by the Carle Clinic Association and the University Board.
